ORDER

15 Having considered the Motion of the Defendant to allow the Government additional time
16 under the Speedy Trial Act to file an indictment, together with the Government's response to 17 that motion, the Court finds that the ends of justice served by granting the extension outweigh
18 the best interest of the public and the Defendant in a speedy trial. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(8)(A).

19 In making this finding, the Court has considered each of the factors specified in 18
20 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(8)(B). In addition, the Court has considered the following:

- 21 1. Counsel has only recently been appointed to the Defendant.
- 22 2. The Government's policy, which is well known to the Court through proceedings in 23 previous cases involving numerous defendants, provides a sentencing incentive to encourage 24 early pleas of guilty in cases brought pursuant to 8 U.S.C. § 1326.
- 25 3. The savings in time by expediting the proceedings in appropriate cases serves the 26 public interest by reducing the costs of detention, prosecution and defense as well as in bringing 27 such charges to a prompt resolution.

1 4. The avoidance of grand jury proceedings with the voluntary consent of a defendant,
2 when appropriate, reduces the number of proceedings required to bring a criminal matter to a
3 prompt resolution.

4 5. An early decision by a defendant to reach a plea agreement with the Government
5 often avoids the need to present the matter to a grand jury.

6 6. In order to allow the Defendant's attorney an opportunity to investigate possible
7 defenses to a charge in a criminal complaint and to adequately counsel the Defendant, additional
8 time is often needed for the filing of an indictment or information beyond the thirty (30) day
9 period provided in the Speedy Trial Act. The Government's standard offer requires the 10 Defendant to waive his right to grand jury proceedings and agree to proceed by the filing of an 11 information. If the Defendant does not agree to this procedure within the time allowed by 12 statute, the Government would withdraw the plea offer.

13 7. Disposition of immigration cases through the pre-indictment plea offer in an 14 expeditious resolution of the case. Granting a thirty (30) day continuance allows defense
15 counsel time to assure that the plea offer is in the Defendant's best interest.

16 The Court therefore concludes that the ends of justice are best served by granting an 17 extension of time to present the case to the grand jury and in excluding a period of thirty (30)
18 days under the Speedy Trial Act. In making this determination, the Court has particularly taken 19 into account that the failure to grant the Defendant's request "would deny counsel for the 20 defendant. . .the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the 21 exercise of due diligence." 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(8)(B)(iv).

22 IT IS ORDERED granting Defendant's Motion to Extend Time to Indict (Doc. #7).

23 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that excludable time shall begin to run on the 31st day
24 after arrest for a period of thirty (30) days in which the Government may present the case to the 25 grand jury.

26 || DATED this 3rd day of April, 2008.
